Monthly Newsletter: January 2023

A Message from your President

New Beginnings. January is always a time for review and new beginnings. LWC builds on a strong foundation laid by earlier members of the club. The old ways are often the best, but a good review may show needed changes. We have so much to be thankful for: a new meeting place, a large growth in membership, successful projects, connecting with friends and making new friends. Our child reach committee was highly successful in obtaining donations, dividing work assignments, and wrapping and distributing holiday gifts for needy families in the Warwick School District. Thank you so much to the Chairwomen and all the club members who worked so diligently. The club is thankful to the Listrak company for donating their space for our club activities. We must be mindful that we are in their space. Park where we are instructed, stay in LWC areas. Security is paramount to Listrak so be mindful of obeying the rules. Soon the club will begin thinking about Spring projects.... But for now, we have time to see the club receive recognition from the community. The club is viewed as group of caring, concerned, effective women. Oh yes as Fun Loving women too! See you at game night, and Trivia night. Social evenings of games and relaxation. A chance to mingle with good people in order to keep your soul nourished.

Arts and Social

MJ Ember and Geri Kull

The Arts and Social Committee celebrated the Christmas season with a luncheon at Listrak. Many thanks to Julie Meiskey who chaired the event and organized a creative group of women who decorated and set up tables.

Earlier in December fifteen ladies visited Wheatland, the home of James Buchanan, to take the Yuletide tour. After a busy December, we will not be offering a social activity in January.

If weather permits, we plan to offer a dinner and a movie outing in February. More information will be given at a later date.

Archives

The Scrapbook will be at the January Game Night. A good time to look through last year's book as well as this year's book so far. There is a lot in our book from this year. If anyone has pictures from the Fashion Show, please text them to me. Thanks!

Child Reach

Marianne Sullivan, Brenda Crosby and Bette Ranck

After an active fall of fundraising, communicating with parents, accepting with gratitude donations of hats, socks, jewelry, fruit, toiletry items, gift cards, Wilbur buds, and hand-sewn bags, shopping, wrapping, and delivering, the members of the Child Reach Committee, aided by many friends from the club, is ready for a "long winter's nap," like the parents in "The Night Before Christmas." We hope that all of us working together have brought a measure of happiness and comfort to our struggling families. We humbly thank our Lititz/Warwick Community of neighbors, friends, businesses, and organizations for their generous support.
