Monthly Newsletter: March 2022

A Message from your President

Hi Ladies,

Spring is almost here & so is a new fundraiser for Ways & Means! Sei's Catering, April 21st, more details in this newsletter so please read to stay informed. Please consider purchasing tickets to be sold to your family and friends. This fundraiser has the potential to be very lucrative for the club. Please help Ways & Means reach their goal!

The General meeting for March is on the 21st. We will be entertained by some Irish music including bagpipes so we're asking members to wear green!

Thanks for all you do!

Truly,
Amy Hamilton

Art & Social

MJ Ember and Geri Kull

Happy almost spring! As many things do in the sprig, our committee is coming back to life. While we don't have anything planned for March this year, we do have an event planned for April. Save the date, Wednesday, April 27th for our much delayed "Putting on the Glitz" dinner at the Blue Collar Restaurant in Landisville. We will start @ 5PM with libations and dinner will follow at 5:30. More info will be available at the March and April LWC meetings. We have a few things in the planning stages for May and possibly June since we all missed out on so much this year. Stay tuned.

Home Life

Phyllis Frankhouser and Linda Miskinis

The Home Life Committee will be holding the LWCC annual food drive during the months of March and April. Please bring your donations of shelf stable foods and paper goods to the meetings. No expired items, please. Donations may also be dropped off at the home of Phyllis Frankhouser. Please call to schedule drop-off (717-626-4200). During the month of March the committee will distribute trays of homemade cookies to an area first responder organization. If you would like to donate baked goods please call or email Phyllis Frankhouser for details.

Hospitality

Julie Meiskey and Linda Miskinis

The greeters for March are Darlene DiClemente and Julie Meiskey. The Hostesses with the Mostest are Sandy Bock, Sandi Foreman, and Vickie Salmi. Hope to see you all at the March meeting. Be sure to stop by and say hi to our Greeters and Hostesses and sample a few snacks and a drink.

Conservation

Lucy Norton and Bev Hosler

Spring is just around the corner, so it is time for the Conservation Committee to think flowers. The committee will meet for the first time this year on Tuesday, April 12 at 6P.M. at Lucy Norton's. At that time we will brainstorm ideas for the planting of the Square on Saturday, May 14 at 8A.M. The committee is thankful to Barb Flosdorf for her leadership and creativity during the two years that she was a co-chair. We welcome Bev Hosler as our new co-chair and look forward to working with her.

Membership

Beth Mack

During the February Meeting, four new members were introduced to the club by Barb Sandhaus: Midge Kinder, Lauren Amabile, Mary Lou Nelson, and Tori Kramer. A listing of 2021/2022 New Members and their contact information will be sent out to all members via email. We are currently at 185 members. I have reached out several times in the last four months to members who have not paid their 2021/2022 dues and I will be taking their names off the membership list. Covid concerns continue to play a part in many of the decisions regarding membership - if a mistake has been made or you know that a member is interested in continuing their membership, please contact me at 717-940-3306. This list includes: Jerry Knouse, Cathy Minnich, Becky Noon, Sharon Painter, Sandy Roland, Marylou Simons, Danell Sweitzer, and Jan Wynkoop.

International & Public Affairs

Elaine Bair

Instead of contributing to the Pet Pantry this month, we decided to collect items for the Ukrainian people. There was an article in the newspaper about the members of St. Andrew Ukrainian Church collecting items so we would like to extend that collection to our members. They are asking for personal hygiene items as well as cold medicines and Tylenol. Please bring items in to our March meeting. Thanks for your contribution!

Education

Beth Sahd and Sandra Bingeman

The Education Committee is pleased to announce the March Senior of the Month, Ginny Vance, and the April Senior of the Month, Demi Perezous. We will introduce these talented young ladies at our April 18th meeting.

Archives

Julie Meiskey

The scrapbook is up to date for this year. I hope some of you got to see it at the February meeting. I will have it at the March meeting as well. Please try to steal a minute or two and look at it. Your picture is probably somewhere in the book.

Ways and Means- May Dinner Meeting Raffle

Deann Buffington and Sue Pirolli

The Ways and Means Committee is looking forward to our May FUNdraiser, the upcoming dinner meeting raffle on Tuesday, May 17, at Bent Creek. Doors open at 5:30, so come early to check out all the raffle items.

Consider inviting family and friends to this popular dinner meeting. In past years, individuals or varied groups of members have donated items or solicited items from shop- or business-owners to make the raffle a success. Deann and Sue will be accepting items at the April dinner meeting and through May 12. Please see the yearbook, and call or email either co-chair of this event to set up a time for drop-off. Also, fill out the flyer that you will see, at the end of the newsletter. The flyer should accompany your item(s).

PLEASE NOTE THAT BECAUSE OF THE LENGTH OF THE DINNER MEETING WITH THE WRAP- UP REPORTS AND INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS, WE ARE STIPULATING THAT LADIES PUT STICKY RE- TURN LABELS (DO YOU HAVE SOME LEFTOVER FROM CHRISTMAS, FOR EXAMPLE, OR ONES THAT YOU DISLIKE?) ON THE RAFFLE TICKETS OR WRITE NAMES ON THE TICKETS. WE WILL NOT BE READING NUMBERS BUT RATHER WILL BE CALLING OUT NAMES OF WINNERS THROUGHOUT THE EVENING. THANKS, IN ADVANCE, FOR YOUR COOPERATION WITH THIS SYSTEM

Program

Sue Pirolli

Unfortunately, our scheduled March program had to cancel, so we are asking you to wear your "green" and bring a "singing voice" to extend St. Patty's Day celebrations with our club. Join in with the lively music of Fire in the Glen, a group that originated in 1999. You will hear Irish, Scottish, and Maritimes music--and what the trio calls "Celtic Eclectic." You will hear the sounds of the fiddle, guitar, ukulele, Irish bodhan, and other percussion. Also, listen for Highland bagpipes, Scottish small pipes, pennywhistles, and of course, vocals. Be prepared to clap and sing along in Irish American fashion! And ladies of any nationality, until our next meeting on March 21st, may the luck of the Irish be with you!

Correspondence

Deann Buffington

If you know of any member who should get a card and/or note for any reason, please contact Deann at 626-0440 or dbuff@ptd.net.

Nominating Committee

Patricia Kline

The nominating committee (Shirley Flickinger, Kathy Jo Wenger, Linda Hoover, Julie Meiskey, alternate Cathy Gelatka and Patricia Kline, chair) would like to present the following names for your consideration to serve as the 2022-2023 LWC Executive Board:

President - Connie McKane

Vice President - Cathy Doremus

Treasurer- Cheryl Bell Recording

Secretary - Kathy Kurtz

Nominations from the floor will be accepted at the March meeting and a vote of the general membership present will be conducted. If you would like to be considered for one of these offices, please contact Patricia Kline at (717) 371-1240 by Sunday 3/20/22.

Ways and Means

Laurie Grove and Kelley Bomberger

We are excited to share some fun events that are scheduled.
