Monthly Newsletter: October 2019

A Message from your President

It was wonderful to see so many members and guests (10!) at the General Sutter Inn for our September meeting. As I was gathering people in from the patio it was suggested to me that we hold the meeting out there and I commented that it would be easier to fight the noise of the fire station than it was to talk over all those ladies. Actually, I loved watching everyone and listening to all the conversations as gals were getting caught up with each other.

We have more opportunities to socialize in October – see the Arts & Social and the Ways & Means articles for details. And if you want to do some work while you socialize, come on out to the square to help with cleanup/mum planting on the 19th.

I heard from a member that there was some concern about the emails that were sent out this summer regarding helping other clubs. I want you to know that we DO NOT share our email list with any other organization. Our club is active and growing and as our mission is to reach out to the community, I see helping other organizations that also serve our community, to be aligned with this mission. I don't want to overload your mailboxes, and take into consideration how many emails we send out to club members, but if you ever have a concern with how this is being handled please reach out to me.

Once again, I am inviting you to join me at the Lancaster County Clubwomen's Prayer breakfast on Monday, November 25th. The Denver Women's Club will be hosting the event this year and it will be held at Weaver's Banquet Facility. Deadline for reservations is November 1st.

I will not be at the October meetings so you will need to contact me by email or phone to let me know you would like to attend by 10/29 at the latest. (717) 371-1240 pek-line@ptd.net

Warmly,

Patricia

P.S. I just received an invitation from the Towne Club of Lancaster for their Fashion Show/Luncheon/Card Party Scholarship Fundraiser. If you are interested, the contact info and reservation form are attached.

Conservation

Lucy Norton and Barb Flosdorf

We have a few more weeks to enjoy the flowers in Lititz Square. Then we will meet on Saturday, October 19 at 8AM to dig up the plants and dispose of them. Jerry McKonly has asked us not to plant chrysanthemums this year as stone work needs to be done. He is not sure when the work will begin or end. So bring your gloves and shovels on October 19th to clean up the Square. Hope to see you there. "Many hands make light work."

Hi Ladies! Just a reminder. Keep snapping those pictures and if you can forward some to me. Hope you all enjoy the Autumn.

Education

Beth Sahd

At the October 21st meeting, the Education Committee will host the September Senior of the Month, Eva Hain and the October Senior of the Month, Rylee Diffenderfer. We are happy to be able to honor each girl's accomplishments and invite you to welcome them as you arrive to the meeting.

Home Life

Bev Hoffman and Marie Leighton

We had a meeting in September to plan our holiday activities. On December 2 we will visit the residents of Legend Senior Living. We will sing carols with them and give each person a hand-crafted pine cone tree.

On December 6 we will decorate the Gate House for Men. After the rooms have been decorated with wreaths, trees, etc. , we will join with the men singing carols and enjoying the snacks. Finally, ladies will journey to Park City to wrap for Disabilities. The times are 12 to 3 and 3 to 6. If you are interested in any of the events, you can notify the co-chairs.

Fourth of July

Lisa Gleason and Sandi Foreman

We do not have any information to share at this time. Our committee will meet at the start of the new year to plan for Queen of Candles, the July 3rd Parade and Baby Parade on the 4th

Program

Deb McDonald

Everyone has heard of the Cannes Film Festival, and perhaps even the Toronto International Film Festival, but did you know that Lancaster is holding its first ever film festival this year on Nov. 1-3? It is called the Red Rose Film Festival, and there will be screenings of selected independent films (documentaries, features, and shorts) submitted by filmmakers from around the world at Lancaster venues including Zoetropolis, The Ware Center, Tellus 360, Altana, and Hotel Lancaster. In addition there will be panel discussions and special evening events to attend. We will hear EVERY detail about this big Lancaster happening from its Executive Director, Ryan Shank. Join us on Oct. 21st, and get in the loop!

Just a gentle reminder that your annual dues to the LWC should be paid by October 31, and a huge thank you to those who have already paid. If you have already paid and have not received your handbook, we will be distributing them at the General Meetings. If you are unable to attend any of these meeting, please let me know or have a friend pick up the book for you. This will help us defray postage costs. This Dues payment of $30 can be remitted to me, Barbara Sandhaus, 533 Spring Avenue, Lititz between now and October 31. Or you can pay your dues at the October General Meeting. Please make checks payable to Lititz Woman's Club. After October 31, a late fee of $5 will be assessed.

I would like to officially welcome our two new Club members who joined us in September. Please seek them out and give them your personal welcome (look for the green gem on their nametags). Also, keep this Newsletter for their contact information or add them to your Yearbook. And just a reminder to their sponsors. Please invite them to any committee meeting you are a part of – for the first year, they will be on the same committee as you.

Arts and Social

MJ Ember &
Geri Kull

Lots of things are planned for LWC this fall. Coming up on Saturday, October 5th is our walking tour of Downtown Lancaster. We should meet on the square downtown @ 9:45. We are encouraging carpooling and, with that in mind, we will be sending an email out to all those who are signed up next week so you can see who is going and who you might want to ride with. Stay tuned. Cost is $6 and we suggest cash. Our tour leader is Dale and he will be easy to find because he will be wearing a colonial tri-cornered hat!! Wear your comfy shoes. We have reservations for lunch at 12:15 at Yorgos. The manager offered a chance for faster service by shortening the menu to a few items, but Geri and I declined, so service MAY be a bit slow. Their menu is quite extensive so I suggest that you peruse their menu online and this might save some time. If you want to join us for either the tour or lunch or BOTH, please contact Geri Kull at mkull50@yahoo.com. Also, if you need to cancel at the last minute, PLEASE LET US KNOW so we aren't waiting for you.

CHANGE OF DATES: Halloween party date has been changed to Saturday, October 28th – one week earlier -- at Teri Forster's house at 7 PM. (The date was changed to accommodate the Red Rose Film Festival which is to be held the first weekend of November and which will be the program at our October meeting.) Guests are welcome to bring significant others. Costumes are OPTIONAL but there will be games and prizes. Attendees will need to contribute food and/or drink Teri would like you to contact her at tforster@ptd.net. There will be a sign-up sheet at our October meeting.

Child Reach

Sherry Weidman &
Kathy Jo Wenger

The Child Reach Committee met in September and organized plans for our project of making the Christmas holiday extra special for children in our community. There are a few opportunities for club members to help with this project. Dates to put on your calendar are: -Monday November 18th: Towel Kit assembly at St. James Catholic Church at 1 pm. -Wednesday November 20th: Shopping at Lititz Target at 6 pm. -Tuesday December 3rd: Gift Wrapping at Lititz Church of the Brethren at 3 pm. Your help with any of these dates is appreciated!

Ways and Means

Deann Buffington and Sue Pirolli

Ways and Means has a busy Fall schedule! As the leaves fall off the trees, our events began with the Gentle Mah Jongg Tournament organized by Hatsy Droke. It was a competitive, successful, fun tournament... Many thanks to Hatsy, the tournament players, and the General Sutter Inn for a great beginning of our Fundraisers.

Next on our Fall docket, is the Boscov's Coupon Shopping Day on October 16th. Thanks to MJ Ember who is selling the coupons to members, friends, and family, we can jump start our Christmas shopping with the discounts on the coupons. LWC keeps every $5 with no strings attached. Thank you Boscov's!

As the Fall air gets cooler, think of going to Isaacs Deli for a cup of their signature Bisque soup and a salad or sandwich. Isaacs will give us 25% of all dine-in or take-out meals on October 24^h 10:00-9:00. This is a BYOB too! Bring the attached flyer to Isaac's so they can record your sales. Thank you Vickie Salmi and Isaacs!

Enjoy the Christmas Beauty of our town by attending our Winter Snow and Glow Fashion Show on December 7th at the General Sutter Inn. What a great festive start to celebrate the beginning of the Christmas season, enjoy great food and witness beautiful fashions modeled by our club members. Take a chance on items donated by our shops; Clementine's, Heavenly Soaps and Scents, MinD's Boutique, Sonnies Secret, and Tiger's Eye. Shops will supply discounts for you to shop after. Fill out the reservation sheet and return to Deann Buffington by November 22nd.

ALONE WE CAN DO SO LITTLE, TOGETHER, WE CAN DO SO MUCH.
